Ad Text A black man employed by Comcast being given a ticket for doing his job.

This man was working on a house when a bystander reported him to the cops. When police showed up, they drew the gun and told the man to put his hands up because he was accused of walking around the property, looking through windows and searching for a way to steal from home. Despite the fact that the man wore a red Comcast shirt and was standing next to his white Comcast truck searching for some wiring to do his job, the police gave him a ticket for literally doing his job.
